To whom it may concern,

International Youth Initiative Endorsement

I am writing to fully endorse the International Youth Initiative, an exciting new program from Michigan Civics Institute. In discussions with Rep. Doug Hart from Michigan, I am intrigued by the possibilities this new initiative presents.

The world has seen major political changes in the last decade; my country has emerged as a part of those changes. The opportunities for democracy to flourish across the globe are now better than ever. The International Youth Initiative gives young people in the participating countries the opportunity to learn more about how democracies operate and how they are formed.

If our future leaders are to keep democracy alive for future generations, they need exposure to it at an early age. This Initiative provides that in a creative and interesting way. That is why it is receiving my full endorsement.

Sincerely,

Dr. Davorin Kračun
